HEARN MEMORIES
1996-1997

My name is Mrs. Yeast.

I am in the 4th grade.

My teacher is Me.

Some of my friends are ________________________________

________________________________.

On some special occasions, we get to come to school as our true selves!

Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Marshall brew some strange medieval science experiments.

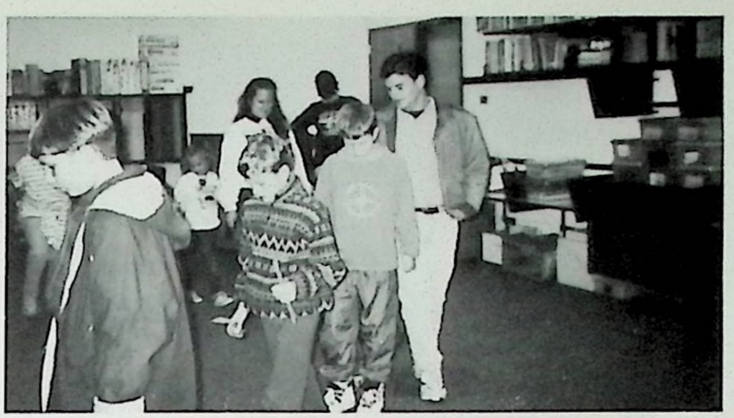

JUST HAVIN' FUN

Mrs. Oder and Mrs. Wedding, behind the scenes at the Fall Festival . . .

Family and friends join in the fun at the Fall Festival.

Sometimes, life IS a cake walk!

Ms. Lynn and the girls get ready for a big night at the 5th. grade dance.

Just one more ''Sally Down the Alley,'' PLEASE!

''Look mom & dad, I am eating my vegetables!''

Ms. Forman's Christmas Program was a big success.

a PART of THE ACTION

HEARN'S HECTIC OFFICE HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Wedding uses all of her problem solving skills.

Mrs. Oder provides a safe haven for those in need.

Paula Meyer, bookkeeper, has access to all the answers.

"Yes, Sherry, we need 100 student records ready to send by 2:00 today."

Office antics are often led by Taz fan and secretary, Lisa Hutcherson.

NUTRITION AND MAINTENANCE STAFF

Denise Tate, Dee Morgan, Janet Lewis, Pam Eickhorn, Libby, Cornish, and Yolanda Hammond

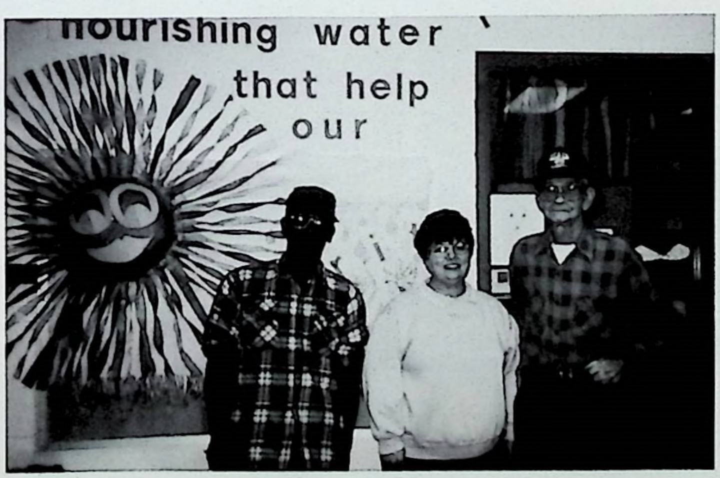

''So, how can you keep track of almost 700 student ID numbers, Dee?''

Pat and Sherry, masters in the art of group dynamics.

Ed, Maggie, and Mr. Steve keep our building running.

Mr. Devore, a new addition to the building crew. Welcome!

THE COUNSELOR'S CORNER

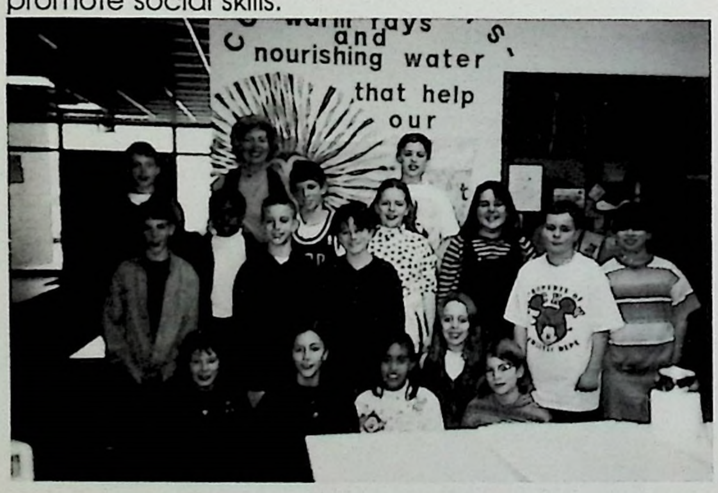

Ms. Burris facilitates many private discussions.

Primary Teams award winners from the ''Giving Compliments'' Poster Contest held in January to promote social skills.

Intermediate teams winners of the ''Giving Compliments'' Poster Contest displayed innovative approaches!

Ms. Burris teaches Peer Meditators how to help others help themselves in negotiations and conflict resolution.

Kentucky Council on Child Abuse Button Design Contestants.

Janie Forman, music teacher, finds many ways to demonstrate musical concepts and philosophy.

"How many more laps do we really have to do before we are FINALLY in shape, Mr. Orr?"

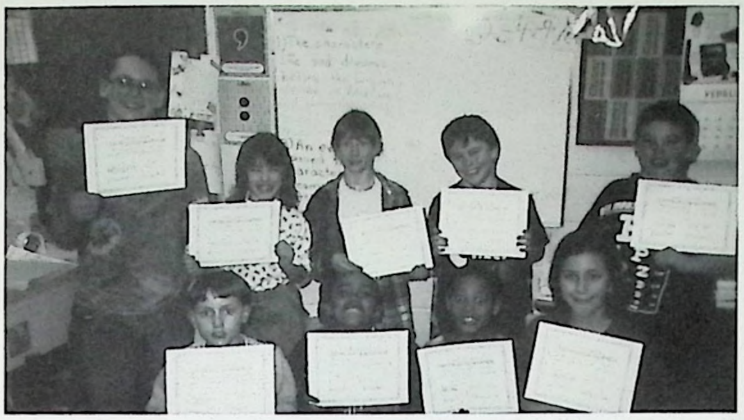

The library provides a warm and diverse environment for students to appreciate literature, thanks to Ms. LeBeau.

Students find their own creative outlets under the guidance of Ms. Thomas, art teacher.

RESOURCE AND COLLABORATION SPECIAL TEAM

Students working with Ms. Lynn show off certificates from the ''Adopt-a-Grandparent'' program.

Ms. Arnold, zen master of organization and maximizing student learning.

Joan Johnston, wearer of many hats, fills in for Mrs. Marcum during Mrs. Marcum's maternity leave.

Ms. Hall, free at last from the confines of ''The Dungeon.''

''Can we make alphabet soup next, Ms. Morris?''

''So, what IS in the bag, Ms. Barnes?''

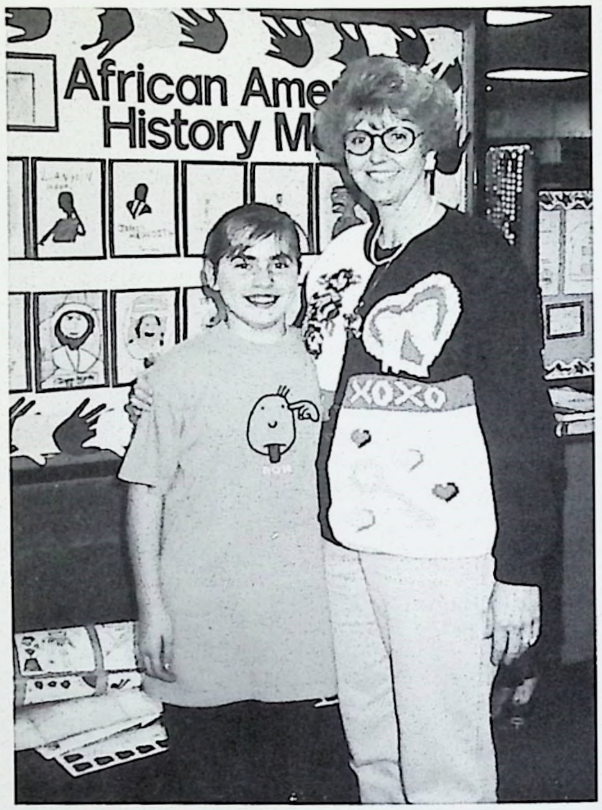

Janie Forman with students selected to perform at the CKMEA Choral Workshop on November 1, 1996.

Many 5th. graders worked hard to be selected to participate in the Governor's Cup academic tournament.

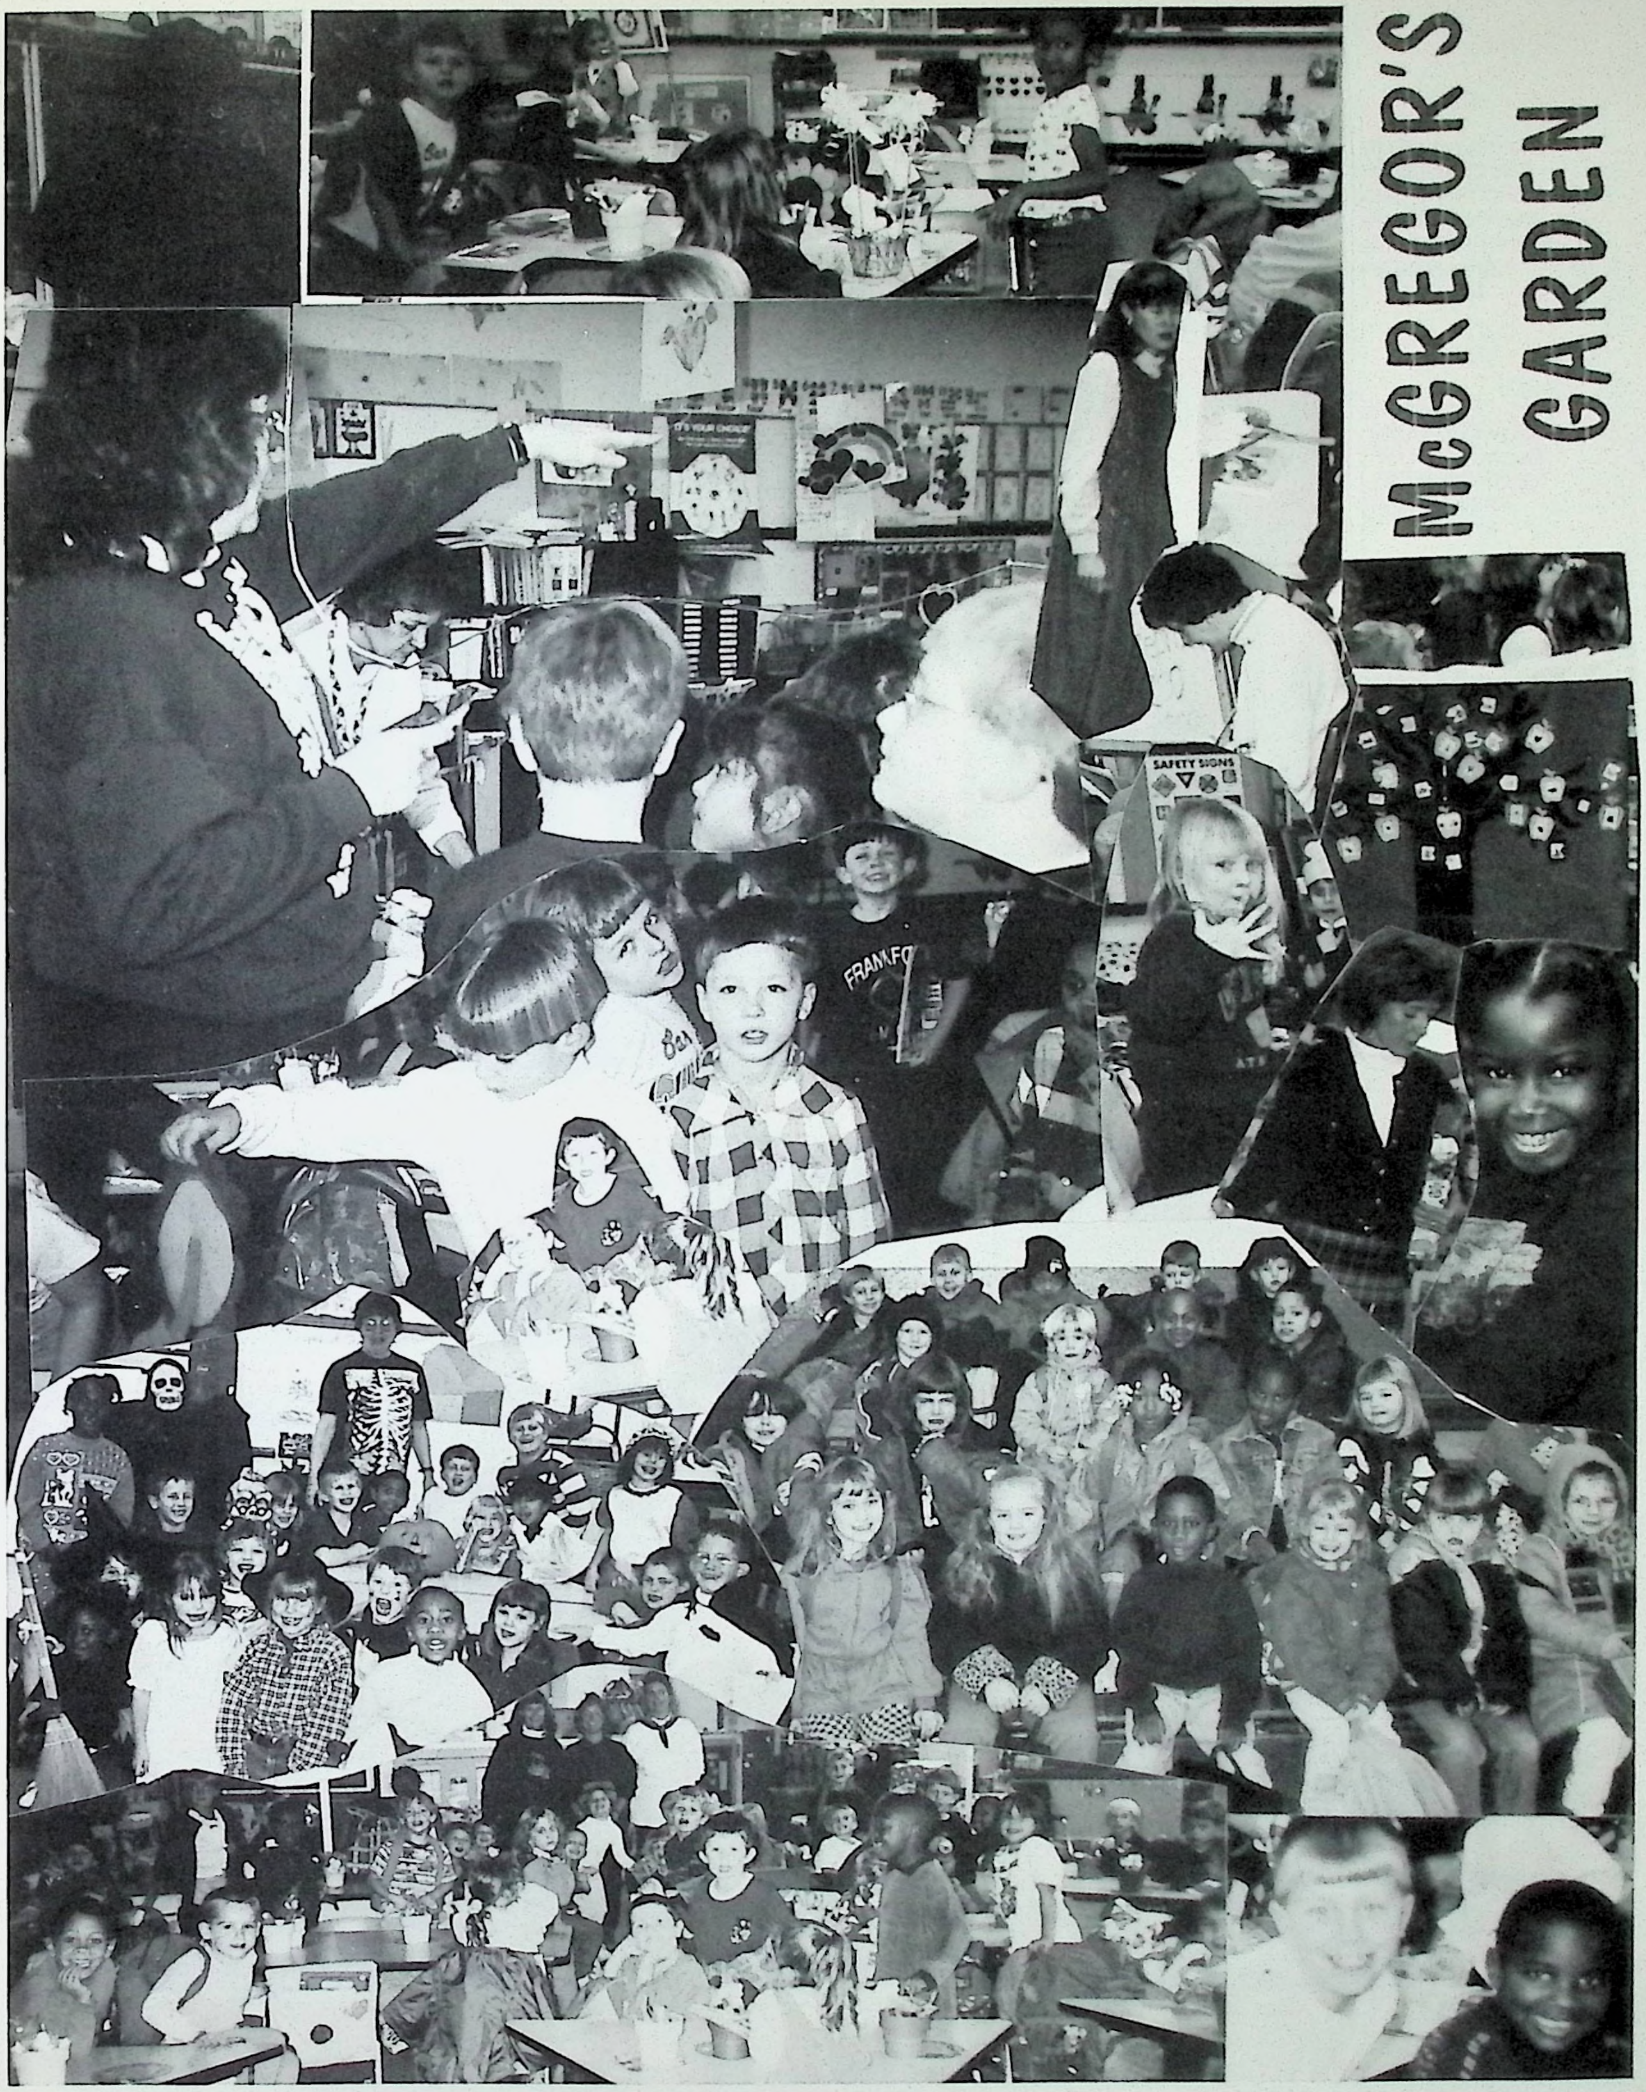

Optimist Club Award Winner, Marie West, with Ms. Antle.

Students performed in the Kentucky Children's Chorus with Mrs. Forman on February 5-6, 1997 in Louisville.
